

Developing Middle Leadership Potential (Primary and Secondary)

Aim

This programme is designed for primary and secondary teachers wishing to develop and deepen their knowledge and understanding of middle leadership.

Requirements

Course delegates will undertake an Action Research project linked to their role, with the focus on 'Closing the Gap'. Schools will choose a coach for each of their delegates who will help to guide them through the project and assist with organisational and practical elements of the programme.

Topics covered

Over the course of the academic year, this programme focuses on a number of key issues including:

- What is it all about? The role of the middle leader
- Developing Leadership Awareness
- Leading Outstanding teaching and learning by raising achievement
- Action planning as a reflective leadership tool
- Leadership of Change
- Managing the Team

Methodologies

Through a Closing the Gap project delegates will fully explore the role of Middle Leader including leadership of change, working with others, managing the team and leading outstanding teaching and learning. Delegates will be shown a variety of key facilitation techniques, have an understanding of some key leadership theorists and be supported by a variety of materials that will build up into a personal set of resources for future leadership growth.

How will my school benefit?

Delegates will develop leadership skills that will further consolidate and strengthen leadership within their schools. Through the Closing the Gap project delegates will be effectively contributing to whole school improvement.

How will my students benefit?

The Closing the Gap project will help to reduce an attainment gap within the delegate's school. Strengthened leadership skills with a focus on leading outstanding teaching and learning will contribute to the raising of expectations within the school setting.
