

How to use financial benchmarking

Overview

This course provides practical guidance on how boards should use the DfE benchmarking tools to explore the value for money of current spending decisions and plan the school/academy budget for the coming year. This is ideal training for anyone on your Finance Committee.

What you will learn;

- What is financial benchmarking?
- Why and when to do it
- How to utilise available tools and data
- How to explore value for money and resource management
- How to measure the impact of spending decisions
- Considerations when approving the budget

Who should attend?

Anyone with responsibilities for school or trust finances, including governors, trustees, school leaders and business managers.

Tutor

Rosemary Lovatt is a highly experienced governance consultant who ran the DfE governance leadership programme across the country for three years and within Essex for a further three years. She has extensive experience of undertaking governance reviews and designing, developing, and delivering training for governors and trustees. Rosemary's background is in the corporate sector where she gained 20 years' experience as a senior global leader. She has a BA(Hons) in Accountancy and Business Studies.

Rosemary has chaired boards in a large secondary academy, a maintained primary school, a primary school within a multi academy trust (MAT) and a large junior school within a diocesan MAT, as well as being a trustee in four different MATs. Rosemary was a designated National Leader of Governance and is currently vice chair of a growing MAT and has recently joined the local governing board of a special school in Essex. Rosemary is also an NGA consultant.
