

How to monitor progress and hold to account for Governors and Trustees WEBINAR

What levels of progress should we expect post lockdowns? Are there different aspects of the curriculum we should monitor more closely this year? If governors/trustees joined in the last two years they will never have experience monitoring progress before.

This WEBINAR provides practical guidance on how to monitor the curriculum and academic progress for all pupils. It provides a refresher on good monitoring practices and how to hold to account.

On this webinar you will learn:

- Understanding the school accountability measures/expectations for 2021-22
- What expectations are there post lockdown to recover lost learning?
- What should boards focus their monitoring on during 2021/22?
- Understanding the school development cycle
- Developing your monitoring plan
- What does good or rapid progress look like?
- How to get data that is meaningful
- How to monitor progress
- How to hold to account on progress

All delegates receive an electronic copy of the presentation and supporting materials and resources to help them to be more impactful in their governance role.

Who should attend?

Governors and trustees who want to understand accountability measures for 2021/22 and how to monitor progress and hold to account, or those who want a refresher on monitoring the curriculum and progress.

About our training

As experienced Chairs of Governors we strongly believe in providing training that gives you the knowledge, tools and examples to be effective governors. Our aim is to give you the confidence and tools to improve your governance as quickly and effectively as possible. All our training is provided by National Leaders of Governance who are experienced governance trainers. Our training can be provided as webinars, as bespoke sessions for your board or group of schools, or face to face sessions (subject to social distancing).

About NLGs

National Leaders of Governance (NLGs) are experienced chairs of governing boards. All NLGs have been through a rigorous designation process from the National College of Teaching and Leadership (NCTL), a part of the Department for Education (DfE), to demonstrate that we have the skills, experience and attributes to be a National Leader of Governance. All NLGs are either actively chairing standalone schools or academies, local governing boards or multi academy trust (MAT) trust boards or have done so within the last five years. All NLGs are trained to support governors through mentoring and coaching and provide governance services which are quality assured.
