

Monitoring the quality of education and the curriculum for Governors and Trustees

In 2022, one of the main foci for schools will be continuing to assess pupils after last years lockdown and delivering a curriculum that reflects their knowledge and helps them catch up on the education missed. This webinar explains what boards should consider as they monitor the curriculum in 2022.

This WEBINAR provides guidance on how to monitor the quality of education and the curriculum, understanding its intent and any development plans, how it has been implemented and its impact in terms of catching up, attainment and progress.

On this webinar you will learn:

- What are the latest changes to the National Curriculum?
- What do baseline assessments tell you?
- Understanding the new Reception Baseline Assessment (RBA)
- Expectations for attainment and progress in 2021/22
- What to expect from the recovery schemes
- Monitoring against curriculum plans
- Getting the right in-year data
- How to use national comparisons, trends and context to better understand your data
- How to monitor education social, emotional, health and relationship education.
- Remote monitoring options

All delegates receive an electronic copy of the presentation and supporting materials and resources to help them to be more impactful when monitoring the quality of education.

Who should attend?

Governors and trustees who want to explore how to approach monitoring the quality of education and the curriculum. Suitable for governors and trustees of all education phases.

Tutor

With nearly 30 years experience in education and governance Julie has been an NLG and is an experience chair and trainer, who has a track record of supporting governance in all types of settings across Essex and beyond. She is currently a chair of a maintained primary school and a Secondary C of E Academy within a MAT.

What people say about our training:

'The best governor training I have ever attended'

'Inspiring! Thanks you! I now feel confident to be a more strategic governor'

'At last, training that provides tools, examples and checklists to help us do the job!'

About our training

As experienced Chairs of Governors we strongly believe in providing training that gives you the knowledge, tools and examples to be effective governors. Our aim is to give you the confidence and tools to improve your governance as quickly and effectively as possible. All our training is provided by National Leaders of Governance who are experienced governance trainers. Our training can be provided as webinars, as bespoke sessions for your board or group of schools, or face to face sessions (subject to social distancing).

About NLGs

National Leaders of Governance (NLGs) are experienced chairs of governing boards. All NLGs have been through a rigorous designation process from the National College of Teaching and Leadership (NCTL), a part of the Department for Education (DfE), to demonstrate that we have the skills, experience and attributes to be a National Leader of Governance. All NLGs are either actively chairing standalone schools or academies, local governing boards or multi academy trust (MAT) trust boards or have done so within the last five years. All NLGs are trained to support governors through mentoring and coaching and provide governance services which are quality assured.
