

Monitoring Safeguarding for governors and trustees webinar

This webinar provides guidance for boards on meeting their statutory duties for safeguarding, including an update on the latest changes to the statutory guidance.

The following is covered:

- Understanding the scope of Safeguarding?
- Latest changes to Keeping Children Safe in Education statutory guidance
- Understanding the school/staff duties
- How to monitor safeguarding records and processes
- Monitoring the single central record and training records
- Monitoring how the school helps pupils keep themselves safe
- Understanding the boards role in allegations

All delegates receive an electronic copy of the presentation and supporting materials and resources to help them to be more impactful in their governance role.

Who should attend?

Any governors and trustees who have responsibilities for Safeguarding, those who are new to governance or any governors or trustees who want to understand more about this important area and the COVID-19 considerations.

Tutor

Rosemary Lovatt is an NLG and led National Leaders of Governance (NLGs) across the East of England and NE London for many years. She is currently Vice Chair of a large multi academy trust. She is an experienced governance tutor, chair and trustee who has supported boards across England and has trained thousands of governors and trustees.

What people say about our training:

'The best governor training I have ever attended'

'Inspiring! Thanks you! I now feel confident to be a more strategic governor'

'At last, training that provides tools, examples and checklists to help us do the job!'

About our training

As experienced Chairs of Governors we strongly believe in providing training that gives you the knowledge, tools and examples to be effective governors. Our aim is to give you the confidence and tools to improve your governance as quickly and effectively as possible. All our training is provided by National Leaders of Governance who are experienced governance trainers. Our training can be provided as webinars, as bespoke sessions for your board or group of schools, or face to face sessions.

About NLGs

National Leaders of Governance (NLGs) are experienced chairs of governing boards. All NLGs have been through a rigorous designation process to demonstrate they have the skills, experience and attributes to be a National Leader of Governance. All NLGs are either actively chairing standalone schools or academies, local governing boards or multi academy trust (MAT) trust boards or have done so within the last five years.
